DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) and the Court's Orders of May 4, 2009 and July 7, 2009, defendants respectfully move for dismissal without prejudice of the cases listed on Exhibit A for failure to prosecute. Counsel for the claimants listed on Exhibit A have withdrawn their representation in those cases, and no notice of appearance of replacement counsel or notice of intent to proceed pro se has been filed in any of the listed cases.

On May 4, 2009, the Court entered an Order regarding "various matters related to case management." (See Order at 1, May 4, 2009.) Among other things, the Court ordered that "all cases pending in this MDL . . . are designated for medical records discovery." (Id. at 2.) Under the terms of the Order, "[i]n any case where counsel for plaintiff moves to withdraw after initiation of the medical records discovery process, the plaintiff shall have 60 days from the date of the filing of the motion to withdraw to obtain replacement counsel. If no replacement counsel files a timely notice of appearance, defendants may file a motion to dismiss." (Id. at 3.) The May 4 Order was amended on July 7, 2009 to provide an alternative for plaintiffs: to file a notice of intent to proceed pro se within 60 days of the withdraw of their counsel. (See Order at 2, July 7, 2009.)

The Court granted counsel's motions to withdraw as to the plaintiffs on Exhibit A more than 60 days ago, and no notice of appearance of replacement counsel or notice of intent to proceed pro se has been filed in any of the cases. Accordingly, these cases should be dismissed without prejudice for lack of prosecution pursuant to this Court's orders. See also Roberts v. Gen. Motors Corp., No. Civ. A. 2:04 CV 44 DF, 2005 WL 1077639 (E.D. Tex. May 6, 2005) (granting plaintiff's counsel's motion to withdraw and dismissing plaintiff's case without prejudice for failure to prosecute because plaintiff did not indicate that she desired to move forward with her claim).

For the foregoing reasons, defendants request that the Court dismiss the cases listed on Exhibit A without prejudice.

Dated: March 10, 2010
